

Ripon Printers Wins Five Web Offset Association Print Awards

March 2013

Ripon, Wisconsin

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Ripon Printers, a leading printer of catalogs, publications, manuals and soft-cover educational products, received five awards, including four first-place honors, in the Web Offset Association's (WOA's) 2012-13 Print Awards, sponsored by Printing Industries of America.

The WOA Print Awards showcase the "best of the best" in the offset arena and attract more than 400 entries from leading North American printing companies and educational institutions. The winning entries will be on display at the 2013 Continuous Improvement Conference in Indianapolis, IN, April 8–10.

Ripon Printers' four first-place commendations include Traditional Woodworkers, Volume 15 (heatset printing employing 1, 2, or 3 colors on coated paper), 1-800 Flowers/Bloomnet Directory May-August 2012 (bound product, combination coldset and heatset printing), Austin-Lehman 2013 Adventure Catalog (product/sales catalog on coated paper) and LKG Industries/Philmore 2012 Catalog (product sales/catalog on uncoated paper). Earning a second-place award was Backwoods Home Magazine #135 (magazines on uncoated paper).

"I'm naturally delighted for our customers," says Andy Lyke, president of Ripon Printers, "but also for our craftspeople, who work so hard each day to meet and exceed the quality expectations of our clients. The WOA Print Awards are wonderful confirmation of their skills and dedication."
